

COMICS COFFEE COMMUNITY

BAMF!'s origin story is decades of driving by empty shop fronts and saying "that would make a great comic shop." Couple that with memories of the space provided to kids, when I was a wee lad, by Book World in my hometown. I wanted to provide a place for the community to come together and be with other people and make connections.

Come as you are.
We can chat if you like, whiling away the afternoon.

We can talk
heroes & villains,
but we can talk poetry too.
Or you can sit silently with a warm cup of tea, alone with your thoughts.

New Comic Book Wednesday.
The wall. Sub stacks. Debating story arcs.
Flipping through back issues.

Flipping through vinyl.
Espresso and pastries
fueling your search.
Graphic novels. Picture books. Guarding kingdoms with a roll of a die.
A book club's deep dive into twisting and turning plot lines.
Swirling circles of color with a crochet group.

So, come as you are. But you may not be the same when you leave. We know we won't.

ARCADE FIRE! THEY ARE ONE OF MY FAVORITE BANDS, AND I FEEL THAT THEY ELOQUENTLY CONVEY THE FEELINGS OF THE EVERYDAY PERSON AND THEIR HOPES, DREAMS, AND STRUGGLES.

COMICS & COFFEE

People have decided in their hearts and minds that what we built and are offering them is worthy of trading the most perishable of currency – their time.

They give that in earnest for whatever they are seeking at our place.

We say BAMFamily, and it may sound funny, but it's true. We love the people we have met here, and they make each day the golden ticket.
